Malone University

Adolescence to Young Adult (7-12) Integrated Math Program Renewal

Request:

Malone University requests renewal of authorization to offer an undergraduate program leading to the Ohio Adolescence to Young Adult (7-12) Integrated Mathematics license. This renewal ensures program alignment with Ohio standards and requirements. Programs leading to the Ohio Adolescence to Young Adult (7-12) Integrated Mathematics license are valid for teaching in grades 7 through 12.

Profile:

Malone University is a private, Christian liberal arts university that was founded in 1892 as the Cleveland Bible College. The university has a specific mission to provide students with an education based on biblical faith in order to develop men and women in intellectual maturity, wisdom, and Christian faith who are committed to serving the church, community, and world. Located in Canton, Ohio, the university has an enrollment of approximately 1,200 undergraduate students and nearly 400 graduate students.

Accreditation/Authorization:

Malone University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) until its next scheduled review in 2023. Malone University's educator preparation programs are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) until the next review in 2024.

Metrics Reported Data (Per OAC 3333-1-05, data available and reported is limited to initial licensure and principal preparation only): Over the past three reporting years, fewer than ten candidates have completed the program. Due to the small number of completers in the program, the Ohio Educator Preparation Program Performance Reports could not be considered in the review process to determine acceptable or unacceptable ranges.

Recommendation:

Malone University's Adolescence to Young Adult (7-12) Integrated Mathematics preparation program meets the Chancellor's requirements for program approval and the State Board of Education's minimum standards for undergraduate level programs. Approval is recommended until the fall 2028 review cycle. The Chancellor may, in his judgement, withdraw approval or require additional review if Malone University fails to meet the Chancellor's standards for educator preparation programs or receives a sanction by CAEP.
