Miami University

Computer/Technology Endorsement Program Renewal

Request:

Miami University requests renewal of authorization to offer a graduate program leading to the Ohio Computer/Technology endorsement. This renewal ensures program alignment with Ohio standards and requirements. Programs leading to the Ohio Computer/Technology endorsement are valid for teaching in grades 7 through 12.

Profile:

Miami University is a public university. The university was founded in 1809, opening its doors in 1824 with a specific mission to build success through an unwavering commitment to liberal arts undergraduate education and the active engagement of its students in both curricular and co-curricular life. Located in Oxford, Ohio, the university has an enrollment of more than 17,000 undergraduate and nearly 3,000 graduate students.

Accreditation/Authorization:

Miami University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) until its next scheduled review in 2026. Miami University's educator preparation programs are accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) until the next review in 2023.

Metrics Reported Data (Per OAC 3333-1-05, data available and reported is limited to initial licensure and principal preparation only): Not required for endorsement programs.

Recommendation:

Miami University's Computer/Technology preparation program meets the Chancellor's requirements for program approval and the State Board of Education's minimum standards for graduate level programs. Approval is recommended until the spring 2028 review cycle. The Chancellor may, in his judgement, withdraw approval or require additional review if Miami University fails to meet the Chancellor's standards for educator preparation programs or receives a sanction by CAEP.
