

REQUEST AND RECOMMENDATION

MODERN COLLEGE OF DESIGN Institutional Reauthorization

Request:

Modern College of Design requests continued authorization from the Chancellor of the Ohio Department of Higher Education.

Profile:

Modern College of Design, located in Kettering, Ohio, is a for-profit institution that serves over 150 undergraduate students. The college opened in 1983 as the School of Advertising Art.

Accreditation/Authorization:

Modern College of Design is accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges until its next review in 2023-24. The college is registered with the State Board of Career Colleges and schools until its next review in September 2022. Modern College of Design has been authorized by the Chancellor since December 2017.

Program Offerings:

Modern College of Design holds Chancellor authorization to offer the Bachelor of Arts in Design Leadership in both on-ground and distance education formats.

Institutional Changes:

Since its last reauthorization, Modern College of Design underwent a name change, experienced a change in senior leadership, and implemented a new learning management system. The college has participated in the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement since June 2020.

Recommendation to the Chancellor:

Modern College of Design meets the Chancellor's standards and the staff recommends continued institutional authorization through December 31, 2024 to coincide with the college's next accreditation reaffirmation review with the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges. The Chancellor may, in his judgment, withdraw authorization or require additional review if the Modern College of Design fails to continue to meet the Chancellor's standards for authorization, receives a sanction from the Accrediting Commission of Career Schools and Colleges, or receives a sanction from the State Board of Career Colleges and schools.
