REQUEST AND RECOMMENDATION

Otterbein University

Multi-Age Visual Arts License

Request:

Otterbein University requests approval to offer an undergraduate level program leading to the Ohio Multi-Age Visual Arts License.

Profile:

Otterbein University is a private, not-for-profit university founded in 1847. The university has a specific mission to prepare graduates to think deeply and broadly, to engage locally and globally and to advance their professions and communities. Located in Westerville, Ohio, the university has an enrollment of more than 2,000 undergraduate and nearly 500 graduate students.

Accreditation/Authorization:

Otterbein University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) until its next scheduled review in 2025. Otterbein University's educator preparation programs are accredited by National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) until the next review in spring 2016.

Background:

Otterbein University is submitting its request to ensure program alignment with Ohio standards and requirements. Programs leading to the Multi-Age Visual Arts License are valid for teaching students in prekindergarten through grade 12. Otterbein University offers the program leading to the Multi-Age Visual Arts License at the undergraduate level.

Recommendation:

Otterbein University's Multi-Age Visual Arts License preparation program meets the Chancellor's requirements for program approval and the State Board of Education's minimum standards for undergraduate level programs leading to the Multi-Age Visual Arts License. Approval is recommended for Otterbein University's undergraduate level program leading to Multi-Age Visual Arts License until the spring 2022 review cycle. It should be noted that the program is subject to periodic review by the Chancellor to ensure that the standards for Ohio licensure continue to be met.
