

REQUEST AND RECOMMENDATION

University of Dayton

Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License

Request:

University of Dayton requests approval to offer a baccalaureate level program leading to the Ohio Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License.

Profile:

University of Dayton is a private, not for profit university. The university was founded in 1920 with a specific mission to educate the whole person and link learning and scholarship with leadership and service. Located in Dayton, Ohio, the university has an enrollment of more than 8,000 undergraduates with an additional 3,000 graduate and professional students.

Accreditation/Authorization:

University of Dayton is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) until its next scheduled review in 2018. University of Dayton's educator preparation programs are accredited by National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) until the next review in 2016.

Background:

University of Dayton is submitting its Limited State Review request to ensure program alignment with Ohio standards and requirements. The program currently holds Specialized Professional Association (SPA) national recognition without conditions, which is a pre-requisite to Limited State Review. Programs leading to the Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License are valid for teaching students in grades 7 through 12. University of Dayton offers the program leading to the Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License at the baccalaureate level.

Recommendation:

University of Dayton's Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License preparation program meets the Chancellor's requirements for program approval and the State Board of Education's minimum standards for baccalaureate level programs leading to the Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License. Approval is recommended for University of Dayton's baccalaureate level program leading to the Adolescence to Young Adult Mathematics License until the spring 2022 review cycle. It should be noted that the program is subject to periodic review by the Chancellor to ensure that the standards for Ohio licensure continue to be met.

Metrics reported on the Ohio Educator Preparation Program Performance Reports for this program are within acceptable ranges as follows: graduate performance as measured by the Ohio Teacher Evaluation System or Ohio Principal Evaluation System; licensure pass rates of program completers; Ohio Value-

Added Measure of PK-12 student learning of students taught by program graduates; admission requirements; field and clinical experiences; candidate perceptions of their preparation and graduate persistence in Ohio Resident Educator Program.
