HEI OTC Attestor Responsibilities

The OTC Attestor acts as the single point of contact to the Department of Higher Education for their respective area. This includes:

1. Responsible for a direct productive relationship between all staff involved in data reporting at the institution, as well as the Ohio Department of Higher Education: ODHE staff and leadership, institutional data team members, and others in related academic/financial areas.
2. Keeping stakeholders well informed about HEI reporting related deadlines, expectations, responsibility, results, and provide feedback as needed.
3. Staying up-to-date on new data reporting requirements, HEI file changes, HEI system changes, and related law changes and inform others at their institution.
4. Forwarding emails or other communications from ODHE to all relevant stakeholders at their institution.
5. Coordinating and conducting activities (such as: attending all HEI related meetings, data quality and verification of ODHE reports, changes to existing data files or new data files requested, shifting timelines, gap analyzing, etc.) to ensure that HEI reporting and compliance requirements are met.
6. Assisting with transitions and training of institutional staff to ensure that data is reported correctly and in a timely manner when there is staff turn-over at their organization.
