

Rule Revisions Summary

The following provides an overall description of the revisions for College Credit Plus administrative rules. See Ohio Administrative Code 3333-1-65. through 3333-1-65.13 for current rules.

Options A & B and 30 Maximum Credits
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Embedded in several rules are references to a student's limit to 30 maximum credits including both secondary school units and college credits.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The clarified information provides direction for including the tentative choice of Option A (self-pay) and Option B (state-pay) on the Intent to Participate form.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student/participant responsibilities are identified in rule 3333-1-65.1 including providing tentative choices of Options A or B on the Intent to Participate form and confirming the choice of Options A or B when registering for courses.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All references to "college" credit are deleted when referencing the 30 credit maximum calculation since the calculation includes both secondary school units/credits and college credits.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The process for payment of courses when a student exceeds 30 maximum credits is provided.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clarifying language has been added that a school cannot adopt a policy that purposely limits a student's ability to participate.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Adds the chosen Option to the already required Pre-Term Notice of Enrollment report that colleges send to secondary schools, students, and families.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clarifying language has been provided for nonpublic and homeschooled students enrolling in courses that exceed funding awards.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Clarifying language has been provided for self-pay financial responsibility for entire course's credit hours, not partial hours.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Addresses courses that are "not College Credit Plus" for course eligibility and underperforming students.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An additional summary sheet is available for Options A & B at www.ohiohighered.org/ccp.
