

Career and Training Services Reporting

Table 1 describes allowable career or training services for title II grantees. Some of the career services represent activities and functions provided as part of regular programming by adult education providers. Other career services may be new to adult education providers and should be incorporated into federally-funded programming to realize the vision of WIOA for all clients.

The left column of the table comes directly from the federal guidance; the right column of the table is a crosswalk, listing four major categories of services. To create meaningful categories of costs, two sets of rows from the federal table are grouped together to reflect how services are typically provided in adult education. For each category, a non-exhaustive list of allowable costs follows.

Each fiscal agent should develop a procedure for documenting the percentage of staff time devoted to allowable activities, based on how these services are offered in various settings (OhioMeansJobs center, satellite class, main campus, etc.) and local wages. The cost methodology could be determined by an analysis of time and effort reports or a time log, for example.

Training costs incurred in Integrated Education and Training (IET) programs	Category: Training

Category: Outreach, intake, and initial assessment

Programs may deliver these services as integrated or linked services, usually at first or early contact with enrolling students. Programs may calculate these costs based on:

Materials and services purchased to support outreach and assessment activities, tracked as actual costs in budgets and reimbursement requests; and

Percentage of staff time (which may include employee benefits) devoted to these activities.

Examples of allowable costs and budget codes under this category :

- Object Code 100: Percentage of salary of staff performing outreach, intake, or initial assessment activities
- Object Code 200: Percentage of fringe benefits of staff performing outreach, intake, or initial assessment activities
- Object Code 400: Media, radio, and print ads; website design; email outreach services; video design; internal printing to aid in outreach, intake, and assessments. Percentage of internet and/or phone connections; percentage of classroom space rental for assessment and intake.
- Object Code 500: Cost of initial assessments and supplies used for intake; cost of computers, printers, and supplies used exclusively for intake and initial assessments. Postage used for outreach activities.

Category: Referrals and information dissemination

Programs may deliver these interrelated services through staff positions variously titled counselors, transition specialist, liaison, or navigators, as well as by instructors at satellite classes. Programs may calculate the cost of these services based on:

Materials provided to students with this information, tracked as cost estimates in budget workbooks and as actual costs in reimbursement requests; and

Percentage of staff time (which may include employee benefits) devoted to these activities.

Examples of allowable costs and budget codes under this category:

Object Code 100	Percentage of salary of staff performing referral and information dissemination activities
Object Code 200	Percentage of fringe benefits of staff performing referral and information dissemination activities
Object Code 400	Contracted copier services; contracted printing; video creation for orientation or dissemination of referrals and information. Internal printing to aid in referrals and information dissemination. Percentage of internet and/or phone connections; percentage of office space rental and/or utilities for referrals and information dissemination.
Object Code 500	Cost of materials, supplies, and postage used for referrals and information dissemination

Category: Supportive services and assistance

Programs may deliver and/or arrange for these supportive services to be delivered in various ways and with a variety of partner agencies. Programs are encouraged to partner with other WIOA and community partners to offer these supportive services to students. Programs may calculate the cost of these services based on:

Materials provided to students with this information, tracked as actual costs in budget workbooks and reimbursement requests; and

Percentage of staff time (which may include employee benefits) devoted to these activities.

Examples of allowable costs and budget codes under this category:

Object Code 100	Percentage of salary of staff performing or coordinating supportive services
Object Code 200	Percentage of fringe benefits of staff performing or coordinating supportive services

Category: Training

Under WIOA, title II providers are expected to establish partnerships with occupational training providers to deliver Integrated Education and Training (IET) when possible. Title II funds may be used to support the following costs in support of IET programs: occupational skills training, materials, supplies, and equipment used for instruction; and procured training instructor costs. Title II funds may not be used to purchase credential assessments.

Examples of allowable costs and budget codes under this category:

Object Code 100	Percentage of salary of staff delivering the occupational training course
Object Code 200	Percentage of fringe benefits paid for the percentage of staff time used to deliver occupational training course
Object Code 400	Contracted training instructional services; internal printing to deliver occupational training instruction; percentage of classroom space rental for training instruction
Object Code 500	Cost of materials, supplies, and equipment (under $5,000) used for training instruction
Object Code 600	Costs of equipment (over $5,000) used for training instruction
