To promote a safer campus environment for all of Ohio’s students, the Ohio Department of Higher Education (ODHE) encourages campus professionals have an understanding of trauma and how to build skills to respond to a disclosure of gender based violence in a trauma-informed manner. With the goal of ending and preventing sexual violence on Ohio’s campuses, the Chancellor of the Ohio Department of Higher Education is issuing this RFP for training workshop(s) for campus Title IX investigators. The program supports the following recommendations from the Changing Campus Culture report:

- Adopt a Survivor-Centered Response.

The report can be found at www.ohiohighered.org/ccc/report.

The award of this RFP will result in a contract with the Chancellor. The Chancellor has designated up to $40,000 for completion of the work.

The Chancellor’s actions and this RFP are pursuant to Section 381.120 of Amended Substitute House Bill 166 of the 133rd General Assembly, which directs the Chancellor to develop model best practices for preventing and responding to sexual violence on campus and protecting students and staff who are victims of sexual violence on campus. The second should include an in-person, skill building training that teaches participants how to employ the information learned in the online training through case studies, interactive role play, or other similar delivery methods. Both trainings will be made available to all campuses in Ohio for use at any time once published on the ODHE website. The Chancellor is seeking parties who can develop and deliver this type of training curriculum and materials for all campuses in Ohio.    2. Training module should include interactive components (i.e. case studies, role play scenarios) to help develop skills of participants.
   3. Training module should be inclusive and representative of the different populations on our campus communities.
4. A train-the-trainer video should accompany the in-person training module to help campus facilitators identify intended outcomes, potential pitfalls or challenges, and to respond effectively to individuals who may be triggered by the materials and/or participant responses during the training.

C. Qualifications of vendor services team.
   1. Demonstrated knowledge and experience in campus sexual misconduct response processes and trauma.
