

The following table outlines how transfer credits will be applied to the Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology degree at the University of Akron for students who completed an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree via the Ohio Guaranteed Anthropology Transfer Pathway. The OGTP designation guarantees the transfer and applicability of credits, but does not guarantee admission to a program. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive, and students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.

Advising Notes: (*) Indicates that coursework will be evaluated for applicable equivalency upon transfer at the university. If a Transfer Assurance Guide (TAG) course is taken, the approved course equivalency will be awarded. ¹ The University of Akron recommends an Ohio Transfer 36 approved course in public speaking. If not taken as part of the associate degree, students will need to complete this requirement at the University of Akron. ² Fulfills University of Akron's Global Diversity requirement ³ Taking Classics Ohio Transfer 36 approved Humanities courses is recommended if possible as these classes will provide students with a strong foundation for one of the minors offered in Anthropology.

The following additional coursework will be required to complete the Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology degree at the University of Akron after a student has completed their Associate of Arts Ohio Guaranteed Anthropology Transfer Pathway degree. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive and admission into the program is not guaranteed. Students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.
