

The following table outlines how transfer credits will be applied to the Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy degree at Kent State University for students who completed an Associate of Arts degree via the Ohio Guaranteed Philosophy Transfer Pathway. The OGTP designation guarantees the transfer and applicability of credits, but does not guarantee admission to a program. Some bachelor-degree granting programs may be competitive, and students should check with individual institutions for their program admission requirements.

Advising Notes: ¹ Students must complete the Kent State diversity course requirement, which includes one course with a domestic diversity focus and one course with a global diversity focus (fulfilled by Introduction to Philosophy) from the approved list. These can often be fulfilled as part of the associate degree with careful course selection. Please work with your advisor to identify appropriate courses. ² Assumes the student has completed the first two semesters of the foreign language sequence prior to entering Kent State. ³ Completion of the Ohio Transfer 36 will satisfy the entire set of Kent Core requirements. College General Requirements for students pursuing a B.A. in the College of Arts and Sciences are not covered by the Ohio Transfer 36, though they may be covered in additional coursework. Please reach out to pathways@kent.edu with questions. ⁴ The College of Arts and Sciences requires that students successfully complete a minimum of 42 upper-division credit hours. ⁵ Kent State requires a total of 120 credits hours for bachelor's degree completion. The total number of hours to complete the bachelor's degree represents a range of hours that may be needed depending on the individual course selections made during the associate degree program.
