Ohio's attainment goal:

Ohio aims for 65% of its adult population to have a degree, certificate, or other postsecondary workforce credential by 2025.

The Aspire program plays a crucial role in reaching this goal by preparing adults for postsecondary education and training.

Aspire provides:

- Basic skills education
- GED preparation
- Bridging to postsecondary education/training/employment
- Career pathways
- Integrated education and training
- English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)
- Distance Education
- Corrections Education
- Workplace Education
- Family Literacy
