Introduction

The Ohio Board of Regents reports enrollment on both a headcount and full-time equivalent (FTE) basis. Headcount enrollment is a count of students in which each student is counted once regardless of their credit load. In contrast, FTE is calculated based on student credit hours (SCH) taken. Annual FTE is equal to total semester credit hours taken throughout the entire academic year by all students divided by 30 (30 semester credits is a typical full-time load). For students in certain doctoral-professional practice programs such as medicine, all students are treated as full-time, with each student counting as one FTE.

In FY 2012, total FTE enrollment in all public colleges and universities in Ohio was 448,119, a 24% increase from FY 2003. By sector, community colleges have grown 39% over the ten year period 2003-2012 compared to 32% growth at regional campuses and 16% growth at university main campuses. From FY 2011 to FY 2012, FTE enrollment was down 1.1% due to a 4.6% decrease at community colleges, a 3.0% decrease at regional campuses, and a slight 1.2% increase at university main campuses.

Community colleges enrolled 32% of all FTE in FY 2012, compared to regional campuses (9%) and university main campuses (59%). Compared to FTE enrollment, headcount enrollment at community colleges makes up a larger share of the system-wide total (38%) due to the larger percentage of part-time students attending those colleges.

FTE in undergraduate coursework accounted for 89% of total FTE in FY 2012. The remaining FTE are in graduate and professional coursework. The undergraduate share of FTE is unchanged from FY 2003. Enrollment in developmental coursework is of particular interest in current policy discussions. Enrollment in these courses indicates that students are not prepared for college-level coursework. Because developmental coursework does not apply to degree requirements, it can reduce the likelihood that students will graduate on time or graduate at all. FTE enrollment in developmental coursework was 25,566 in FY 2012, or 5.7% of total FTE, compared to 4.7% of total FTE in FY 2003.

Definitions

Employee Groups	Definition
Annual Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) Enrollment	Full-time equivalent (FTE) enrollment is a measure calculated based on student credit hours (SCH) taken. Annual FTE is equal to total student credit hours taken throughout the entire academic year divided by 30 if taken at an institution on a semester calendar or 45 if taken at an institution on a quarter calendar. For students in certain doctoral-professional practice programs such as medicine, all students are treated as full-time, with each student enrolled counting as one FTE.
Undergraduate FTE - Developmental	FTE enrollment in courses identified as being Developmental (Code V) in the HEI Course Inventory (CI) file. Developmental courses are below college level courses that are designed to prepare students for college level work. Developmental courses are primarily taken by undergraduate students, but there are some developmental courses, such as English as a Second Language, that can be taken by graduate and professional students. In this report, developmental courses taken by non-undergraduates are still placed in the undergraduate category, regardless of the rank of the students taking the developmental courses.
Other Undergraduate FTE	FTE enrollment in courses identified as Baccalaureate ('B'), General ('G'), or Technical ('T') in the HEI Course Inventory (CI) file are placed in the "Other Undergraduate" category, regardless of rank of the students taking the developmental courses. For courses identified as Masters, Professional, or Doctoral in the Course Inventory (CI) file, the credit hours taken by students with an undergraduate rank (Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, Not Otherwise Classified Undergraduate), are placed in the Other Undergraduate category.
Graduate and Professional Course Level	For courses identified as Masters, Professional, or Doctoral in the HEI Course Inventory (CI) file, only the credit hours taken by students with Master's , Doctoral, Professional, or Non Degree-seeking Graduate Students are placed in the Graduate and Professional category.
Fiscal Year	For Ohio Board of Regents enrollment reporting purposes, the Fiscal Year runs from summer term through spring term of the following calendar year. For Fiscal Year 2012, the following terms would be included: Summer 2011, Fall 2011, Winter 2012, and Spring 2012.
