Ohio Educator Preparation Provider at Kent State University

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2014 to Aug 31, 2015
(Data Source: Ohio Department of Education)

Description of Data:

February 2016 Note: Ohio Teacher Evaluation System results for the 2015 Report are not yet available. Revised Educator Preparation Performance Reports will be published when these data become available.

Ohio's system for evaluating teachers (Ohio's Teacher Evaluation System) provides educators with a detailed view of their performance, with a focus on specific strengths and opportunities for improvement. The system is research-based and designed to be transparent, fair, and adaptable to the specific contexts of Ohio's school districts. Furthermore, it builds on what educators know about the importance of ongoing assessment and feedback as a powerful vehicle to support improved practice. Teacher performance and student academic growth are the two key components of Ohio's evaluation system.

Limitations of the Ohio Teacher Evaluation System (OTES) Data:

1. The information in the report is for those individuals receiving their licenses with effective years of 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2014.
2. The teacher evaluation data in this report are provided by the Ohio Department of Education.
3. Due to Ohio law, results must be masked for institutions with fewer than 10 completers with OTES data.

Ohio Educator Licensure Examination Pass Rates at Kent State University

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2013 to Aug 31, 2014
(Data Source: USDOE Title II Report)

Description of Data:

Ohio educator licensure requirements include passage of all requisite licensure examinations at the state determined cut score. The reported results reflect Title II data, and therefore represent pass rate data solely for initial licenses.

Further, because the data are gathered from the Title II reports, there is a one year lag in accessing the data. Teacher licensure pass rate data are the only reported metric for which the data do not reflect the reporting year 2014-2015.

Value-Added Data for Students Taught by Teachers Prepared by Ohio Educator Preparation Providers at Kent State University

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2014 to Aug 31, 2015

Description of Data:

February 2016 Note: Value-Added results for the 2015 Report are not yet available. Revised Educator Preparation Performance Reports will be published when these data become available.

Ohio's value-added data system provides information on student academic gains. As a vital component of Ohio's accountability system, districts and educators have access to an extensive array of diagnostic data through the Education Value-Added Assessment System (EVAAS). Schools can demonstrate through value-added data that many of their students are achieving significant progress. Student growth measures also provide students and parents with evidence of the impact of their efforts. Educators and schools further use value-added data to inform instructional practices.

Limitations of the Value-Added Data:

1. The information in the report is for those individuals receiving their licenses with effective years of, 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2014.
2. The value-added data in this report are those reported by Ohio's Education Value-Added Assessment System (EVAAS) based on reading and mathematics achievement tests in grades 4-8.
3. For Educator Preparation Providers with fewer than 10 linked teachers or principals with value-added data, only the number (N) is reported.

Excellence and Innovation Initiatives

Reporting Period from Sept 1, 2014 to Aug 31, 2015
(Data Source: Kent State University)

Description of Data:

This section reflects self-reported information from Ohio Educator Preparation Providers on a maximum of three initiatives geared to increase excellence and support innovation in the preparation of Ohio educators.

Teacher Preparation Programs

Initiative:	Early Childhood International Baccalaureate
Purpose:	Provide early childhood teacher education candidates the opportunity to earn the IBR certificate in teaching and learning.
Number of Participants:	67
Strategy:	KSU's College of EHHS has been approved to award graduate credit for the International Baccalaureate (IB) Organization professional development seminars worldwide. Beginning Spring 2015, all KSU Early Childhood undergraduates will earn the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Program Certificate in Teaching and Learning and will be eligible to teach in IB World Schools in the US and throughout the world. KSY's program is the first in the world to achieve this recognition. (Number of participants is 67 for Spring 2015 semester)
Programs:	Early Childhood Education
Initiative:	Project Astute
Purpose:	To better prepare ALL teachers to teach students with diverse learning needs (i.e., students with disabilities, students from low SES backgrounds, English language learners).
Goal:	Develop and pilot a four year undergraduate dual license program (Middle Childhood/Special Education).
Strategy:	Project ASTUTE is a collaborative effort to 1) identify the knowledge, skills, and dispositions needed to collaboratively implement effective teaching practices for diverse learners; 2) map competencies onto a program of study, and 3) pilot the new program to evaluate processes and outcomes. Strategies include syntheses of relevant research and professional standards; close collaboration between stakeholders; systematic evaluation conducted by independent evaluation team. Anticipated participants: Five middle childhood faculty; six special education faculty; one project facilitator; seven school representatives (principals, directors, superintendent); students in pilot courses (< 75).
External Recognition:	With the Ohio Department of Education, University of Cincinnati, and University of Dayton, applied for and received intensive technical assistance for dual license program from the national CEEDAR center (application received highest score of all state applicants).
Programs:	Middle Childhood, Special Education (Mild/Moderate)
Initiative:	College Today Program (APS - Ellet & Firestone)
Purpose:	Helping students on the cusp make the transition from high school to college by helping them become effective readers, writers, and mathematicians and, generally more "college ready".
Goal:	Have students raise their ACT scores to remediation-free numbers (Reading- 18 and Math- 22), score well enough on the CLEP test to secure college credit, and become familiar with related 'soft skills' in order to ease their transition to college.
Number of Participants:	70

Ohio Educator Preparation Provider Performance Report

Kent State University

Strategy:	Provide college curricula in English and math that is differentiated and leveled to the needs of the high school students and is delivered by adjunct faculty during the school day. The Kent State instructors and high school students are assisted by Academic Intervention Directors, one each in English and math, who are on-site to provide scaffolding and interventions as needed. Kent State pre-service teachers provide additional assistance during their fieldwork. In addition, we offer wrap-around services that include team/relationship building, financial literacy, college transition and preparation, writing scholarship essays, career exploration, and organizational skills. These services are provided throughout the school year and will be extended during a 2016 Summer Institute on the Kent State campus. This institute will also include opportunities for each student to interact with current college students as mentors.
Demonstration of Impact:	The project only began on August 27, but we believe we are already seeing significant improvement in student dispositions (study skills, focus) that we hope will prove to make an impact on ACT and CLEP scores as well as, eventually, success in post-secondary settings.
External Recognition:	This project has been awarded one of the Great Lakes College Ready Grant totaling $480,000 which will be used during both the 2015-2016 and 2016-2017 school years. See article: http://www.ohio.com/news/local/student-loan-agency-bets-1-5-million-on-at-risk-akron-cleveland-students-1.588357
Programs:	Adolescent to Young Adult Education (ADED) program are involved in the project, providing small group, one-on-one and co-teaching assistance onsite at Firestone High and Ellet High.

Principal Preparation Programs

Initiative:	Leading for Social Justice and Equity Scholars
Purpose:	Support candidates earning their master's and Ed.S. degrees and principal licensure.
Goal:	To support candidates in an effort to promote their inquiry-based projects in K-12 schools, share their research findings regionally in Northeast Ohio, and provide them with opportunities to present at regional/state/national/international conferences.
Number of Participants:	6
Strategy:	Candidates completed essays regarding their vision/mission/actions taken to promote social justice and equity in schools; collected letters of recommendations from K-12 students, teachers, families, school leaders, and community members regarding their work in K-12 schools; candidates are afforded opportunities throughout their courses to collaborate with K-12 school communities, implement their research-based solutions from inquiry-based projects, share their research findings with regional school communities, and engage in evaluating the impact of their work in K-12 schools.
Demonstration of Impact:	Candidates are provided opportunities to demonstrate their impact in several courses throughout their studies (i.e., Leading for Social Justice, Fundamentals of Educational Administration, School Community Relations, Instructional Leadership, Administrator's Role in Curriculum Development, Principalship, and/or Administrative Internship)
External Recognition:	Candidates are evaluated on their ability to impact their school communities through rubrics scored by school community members who serve on their leadership teams throughout their inquiry-based work in schools.
