

WhoDunnit???

Someone's been murdered and it's your job to solve the crime.

Basic Rules:

You can only read what is on your cards to the rest of the group. No showing your cards to other members of the group!

You cannot write anything down! You are only allowed to communicate verbally.

In groups, it is your goal to solve the mystery:

Who died?
Where did they die?
How did they die?
What time did they die?
Who was the killer?
Why was the victim killed?

What difficulties did you encounter in trying to complete this task?

What strategies did you employ in attempting to solve the problem?

Why do this:

- Help form group atmosphere
- Overcome student reticence to speak
- Overcome worries about being wrong
