

OSS012 – INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS/RELATIONS

Credit Hour Recommendation: 3 Semester Hours
Prerequisites: None
Suggested Topics: Course should deal with concepts, structures, theories, and processes, and institutions of the international system.
Related TAG: Political Science
Course Description: This course examines and applies the basic theoretical perspectives in international relations. It addresses important global issues, including the origins of war, economic relations and human rights, as well as the role of international institutions in global governance.
Students will demonstrate an understanding of:
1. Actors such as states, international organizations, NGOs, transnational corporations, and social movements.
2. Theoretical frameworks such as liberalism, realism, and constructivism.
3. International political economy, international security, and foreign policy.

POLITICAL SCIENCE TAG: INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS/RELATIONS TAG COURSE FACULTY PARTICIPANTS
September 2016

Name	Institution
Marc Simon (Lead)	Bowling Green State University
Sonja Siler	Cuyahoga Community College
Mark Morris	Miami University
Megan Kerr	Owens Community College
Bill Taylor	Terra State Community College
Eric MacGilvray	The Ohio State University
James Sperling	The University of Akron
Cryshanna Jackson	Youngstown State University