

OHL020 – Medical Terminology

Credit Hour Recommendation: 2-3 Semester Hours
Prerequisites: None
Related TAG: Health Information Management
Course Description: None
All of the learning outcomes with an asterisk are essential and must be met.
1. Define medical prefixes, suffixes, combining forms, word roots, and compound words.*
2. Describe how medical terms are constructed using word elements.*
3. Construct medical words by combining forms, prefixes and suffixes.*
4. Apply the rules used to build singular/plural forms of medical terms derived from the Greek and Latin language.*
5. Define a medical term by dividing it into its elements.*
6. Spell terms related to the pathology, diagnostic and treatment procedures, and pharmacology of each body system.*
7. Pronounce terms related to the pathology, diagnostic and treatment procedures, and pharmacology of each body system.*
8. Identify common diagnostic procedures and conditions including laboratory and radiology tests and exams.*
9. Identify the body systems in terms of their major structures, functions, and related work parts.*
10. Identify the medical specialists who treat disorders of each body system.*
11. Identify body planes, directions, cavities, quadrants and regions.*

12. Define common medical and healthcare abbreviations.*

13. Describe the anatomical structures of the given body systems, common diseases, and medical and surgical procedures.*

14. Interpret various medical reports that use common diagnostic, symptomatic, and procedural terms and standard abbreviations.*

HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT TAG: MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY
FACULTY PARTICIPANTS
January-October 2016

Name	Institution
Jan Kelly (Lead)	University of Cincinnati
Lisa Cerrato	Columbus State Community College
Christine Jerson	Lakeland Community College
Karen Motley	Sinclair College
Marie Janes	The University of Toledo