UW Flexible Option
Competency-Based Learning Model

Darci L. Lammers, PhD, Senior Instructional Designer
Continuing Education, Outreach, and e-Learning, UW-Extension

Presented at the Ohio Department of Education Board of Trustees Conference, 2016
Topics

• About us
• Competency-based education: our approach
• Pillars of our model
The UW System
What is competency-based education?

Seat Time/Credit Hour

Student Learning
What is the UW Flexible Option?
Current Offerings

Degrees
• Associates of Arts & Science
• Business Administration
• Diagnostic Imaging
• Information Science & Technology
• Nursing (RN to BSN)

Certificates
• Business & Technical Communications
• Global Skills
• Project Management
• Sales
• Substance Use Disorders
The Pillars of Our Model

- High-quality, faculty-led UW programs
- Market-driven credentials
- Rigorous, authentic assessments
- Holistically designed, competency-based curricula
- Self-paced, personalized learning
- Comprehensive, proactive, personalized student support
- Flexible enrollment, fixed tuition

The University of Wisconsin Flexible Option meets the needs of busy adult learners by providing access to high-quality, self-paced and competency-based programs and accelerated, lower-cost credentials.
Transforming Curriculum

- Online/Classroom Curriculum
- Flex 1.0
- Flex 2.0
Academic Success

Nadia Kaminski
Blake Bishop
Danielle Stertz
Mike Exum
Q & A